MISCELLANEOUS READING. VALUE OF CREDIT.

(From the New York Independent.) Few men in business properly estimate the value of good credit. One man thinks that so long as he can obtain property upon a pro-mise of future payment, he need look after or care for nothing more. If he can only get Jasper County, Georgia, authorized by Special Act of the Legislature, McKINNEY & CO., Managers.

To be drawn in public, under the sworn superintensoon finds out, however, much to his morthing. cation that he does not rank quite as high in market as some of his neighbors. On reflection he makes up his mind that perhaps his private character is not what it should be. and that this "feature" in his standing is being talked of in business circles. He may be good, it is said, but "touch him lightly," for in due time he will fall. Another man suddenly asks, "What is the matter?" He discovers a want of cordiality among his "old friends." Can it be, he says, that allowing a note to go to protest "under peculiar circum-stances" has thus injured me? Now let us be a little more minute, and illustrate the subject by introducing to our readers the following "merchants from the interior" all of whom, of course, stop at the St. Nicholas or the Astor-or at the least smoke cigars on the steps of one of these hotels. They severally apply to our "leading firm" for credit. Here is their record: Mr. A ----, reputed to be good, but "he drinks." Look out for him. Mr. B ----, worth $10,000; lives high; and rides fast horses. Be careful. Mr. C ---, doing a large business, but is

order to get a "bargain," when the truth would answer his purposes a great deal better. Let him alone. Mr. K ----, reputed to be worth $19,000 but there is no soundness in him from the crown of his head to the sole of his foot .-Some days he will collapse like a puff-ball .-

Touch him not. Now we might go through with the alphabet several times, and not then present all sent to purchasers immediately after the drawing. these "doubtful cases" to our readers. We have left off the catalogue those who do business on "borrowed capital" those whose "expenses are larger than their income," and a Zer Remember that every prize is drawn and host of others, many of whom deserve a seperate notice. Our special object is to call the attention of business men to a very simple question, viz-What constitutes the basis of all credit? It is money exclusively ?-Answer the question honestly. If you desire success, answer it. If you desire a good the whool, with the amount of the prize each one name, an swer it. If you desire a clear con is entitled to, will be published after every draw- science, answer it. Those "wise andotherwise" can apply this subject to their "peculiar circumstances and position." To prevent all misapplication of the subject, we will say to the reader, -we mean you persmally.
